

Please do not change the laws regarding Indiana's No Call List. I have enjoyed evenings and weekends without being distrubed by solitation calls which we are not interested in. The law has made it more difficult for scam operations to proceed in our state and I personally enjoy the quiet of our evenings.